Michigan Makes Touch Downs by Tearing up the Center.

Varsity Averaged One Hundred and Twenty-Five and Michigan One Hundred and Seventy-Two. Fine Playing by Virginia.

DETROIT, MICH., Nov. 4.-Special .-The University of Michigan eleven defeated the University of Virginia eleven here to-day, 38 to 0.

The halves were of thirty minutes each and Michigan made three touchdowns in the first half and four in the second. Both sides presented a new line-up, Michigan making four experiments at different places on her team, while Virginia played a rush line with five substitutes in it.

The Southerners were playing their first game in the West, and they found themselves overmatched at every point except in punting, where Michigan tried a new man unsuccessfully VIRGINIA TOO LIGHT.

The whole game is described by saying that the Virginia rush line averaged but 166 pounds, and the whole team but 125 pounds, while Michigan's line average 180 and better the same teams. and her whole team 172

Virginia's light line came out of the game nevertheless with credit. Some of their braces were really splendlid. The work of Taylor at left end, of half back Mailory at guard. of Gerstle at half and Stewart at tackle was noteworthy.

They never but twice gained five yards, and both these occasions were on double passes. Gerstle getting away once for 25 yards. He is the back who scored a touchdown on Pennsylvania. Pennsylvania beat Virginia 23 to 6. Michigan plays Pennsylvania next Saturday. INTERFERENCE POOR.

Their backs did not display a very good kind of interference and their defensive game is at present ahead of the offensive. The Virginians were well pleased with their treatment, they were not once pe-nalized, while Michigan lost one touch-down and lost the ball twice for holding. Prance was ruled out for slugging Mailory, but otherwise the game was clean and played with the best feeling on both Princeton Defeats Brown. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4,-As has been vania foot-ball team was defeated by the Harvard eleven by a score of 16 to 0 on Franklin Field, this afternoon, in the presence of nearly 25,000 spectators.

Harvard deserved the victory, because the played the better game. At no time during the contest did Pennsylvania have a chance to win, and the crimson goal line was never, even for a moment, menaced by the players of the Red and A SENSATION.

There were no sensational plays, and the game was an ordinary one all through. An incident happened at the close of the game which caused somewhat of a sensation among the specta-tors. When the whistle blew announcing the close of the game, Overfield Pennsylvania's centre rush, snatched the ball and made for the dressing-room on a dead run. The custom at foot-ball games is that to the victor belongs the ball. When the Harvard men had recovered from their surreice they deaded. When the Harvard men had recovered from their surprise they dashed after the hying Quaher for the purpose of getting the ball as a trophy. Two or three Pennsylvania men gave the Harvard men the shoulder, and one Pennsylvanian is alleged to have struck a Harvard men in the face. A crowd gatherd around the players, and things for a moment looked ugly. George Woodruff, Pennsylvania's head coach, seeing the unsportsmanike act of Overfield, hastened to secure the ball from him, and made the cure the ball from him, and made the latter spologize to the offended Harvard to-day, 24 to 0. By hard line bucking through the centre and tackles, principally by McBride, Yale carried the ball three times across the goal line and got a fourth touch-down on a decision of the umpire, which was questioned by some of those on the side lines, who believed that instead of a touch-down by Yale, the ball should have gone to West Point on their 30-yard line.

West Point was on the defensive most of the time, but made gains through Yale's left tackle several times.
